

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

MAHWAH REGIONAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ANNOUNCES 2012 GOLF OUTING & HUMANITARIAN DINNER FUNDRAISER

David F. Bolger named Humanitarian; Outing to Benefit The Valley Hospital Foundation and MRCC

Mahwah (July 2, 2012) – The Mahwah Regional Chamber of Commerce will be honoring Mr. David F. Bolger as the Humanitarian of the Year at the Chamber’s 21st Annual Golf Outing & Dinner (www.mahwah.com/golf). The founder and chairman of a Ridgewood, NJ, real estate and investment firm, Mr. Bolger is a regional business leader and well-known community philanthropist. Mr. Bolger has chosen The Valley Hospital Foundation as his designated charity. This extraordinary affair will take place at the prestigious Tuxedo Club in Tuxedo, NY, on Monday, September 10, 2012.

Mr. Bolger is the president of the Bolger Foundation which has made more than $75 million of philanthropic donations since 2000, and has supported those working on behalf of healthcare, disadvantaged youth, churches, seniors, mental health programs, conservation activities and educational opportunities.

The Valley Hospital Foundation provides philanthropic support to The Valley Hospital. For more than 60 years, The Valley Hospital has existed to care for the people of our community when they need it most. The doctors, nurses and employees provide healing, ease suffering and work to improve the quality of life for patients. From the tiniest premature newborn to the grandmother at the end of life, Valley provides compassionate care, regardless of ability to pay. Modern facilities, cutting edge technology and innovative programs are costly, but thanks to charitable donations, they are available for all who need them.
